On Earth- What Next? Where is the outrage over BP's failures

<http://www.onearth.org/node/2200>

“Tom Hutchings, Southwings pilot, is out flying over the horrors of the Macondo site on a daily basis. John Amos and Skytruth are getting current satellite imagery and interpreting it so we have some overview of the progression. Don't listen to the people that have a vested interest in this issue, listen to those lonely voices with a penchant for the truth.”
